

The Institute of Martial Arts and Sciences is proud to present an important and historical event.

University of Derby Kedleston Road; 21st April 2018.

Combined training course and conference.

Theme: Education and Research in the martial arts; Mind, Body and Spirit in Action

Senior IMAS Lecturers and Instructors

Jaimie Lee-Barron PhD FIMAS
 10th dan Jiu Jutsu

Head of the Yamabushi Ryu
 Head of the Shugenja Kokusai Bujutsu Renmei
 President of the IMAS

Matthew Clempner MPhil FIMAS
 7th dan Judo/Taiho Jutsu

Former Olympian
 Veteran police officer/trainer
 Training Director of the IMAS Praetorian
 Academy of Security Studies)

Charles Spring MSc FIMAS
 6th dan Karate

World Medallist and Senior Academic Officer of the
 IMAS

Scott Buckler PhD FIMAS
 Sifu Wing Chun Kung Fu

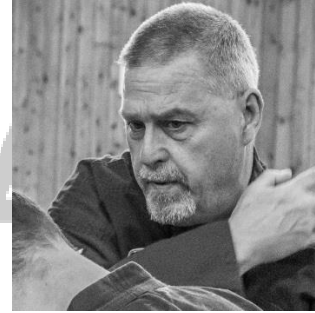

Senior lecturer/ assessor with the
 Teaching and Learning Academy &
 Principal of the IMAS Instructors
 Training College

Tommaso Gianni MSc MIMAS

Practitioner and researcher in Chinese
 Martial Arts, Language and Culture

Special Guest Instructors

Steve Grayston meijin SFIMAS
10th Dan Karate
Head of the Kodo Butoku Renmei

Gary Stringer Meijin FIMAS
10th Dan Modern Combatives and Self
Defence

Practical

Training sessions in

- Karate
- Jiu jitsu
- Goshin Jutsu (self defence)
- Taiho Jutsu (Police martial art)

Course

Theory

Lectures and presentations on the historic philosophical and pedagogic aspects of the martial arts.

Information on personal and professional development with the IMAS including membership and further training and education.

COST. 25 GBP (15 GBP Concessions)

Calamus Est Vires Quam Mucro
BUFFET INFORMATION.

There will be a special buffet after the event to allow people to get to know each other. This will only cost 4 GBP and we have also arranged for the licensed bar to remain open so people can buy their own drinks.

Contact: j.lee-barron@instituteofmartialartsandsciences.com

